

Summer Programs/Internships 2010

(posted for DVHS students as of 3-1-10)

DVHS compiles this list from mailers received and referrals from other SRVUSD high schools. Please be sure to do your own research on each program to make sure it offers what you are looking for in a summer program. Stop by the Career Center for more information on these and other programs. Peruse the Summer Programs/Internships binder.

John Muir Summer Intern Program! Application period is Feb. 22-March 12. Would you like to add work experience in a medical setting to your resume? John Muir will be accepting applications for a clerical summer internship that will do just that beginning Feb. 22nd. Students must be seriously interested in a health care career and commit to working full 40-hour weeks for 8 weeks from June 21st through August 13th and be current sophomores or juniors at least 16 years of age. Online applications only at: www.johnmuirhealth.com/careers.

2010 Young Ambassadors Program -Latino Communities & Cultures (arts, sciences, humanities) -- Smithsonian Institution -- June 20-26, 2010 This incredible program selects up to 24 outstanding high school seniors with an interest and commitment to the disciplines in the arts, sciences, or humanities pertaining to Latino communities and cultures, for a weeklong all expense paid seminar at the Smithsonian Institution. Visit www.latino.si.edu/education for more information and to apply! The training seminar encourages youth to explore and understand Latino identity and embrace their own cultural heritage.

Following the training seminar, students participate in a four-week interdisciplinary education internship in museums and other cultural institutions in their local communities, including Smithsonian-affiliated organizations. A program stipend will be given at the completion of the 5-week program. Through the program, we empower Latino youth to develop leadership and academic skills. All application materials are due in the Smithsonian Latino Center office no later than 5 pm ET on April 7, 2010.

UC Davis - Young Scholars Program Offers summer research opportunities in the biological and natural sciences for 40 high achieving students currently enrolled as sophomores or juniors Apply by March 31, 2010. For more information or to apply, go to: <http://ysp.ucdavis.edu>

Metropolitan Transportation Commission Paid Internship: Calling all students interested finding out more about the careers available within the field of transportation, such as transit agency planners, traffic engineers, etc. Here's a great PAID summer internship program offering hands on experience for 25 Bay Area high school students. Applications are due by March 26, 2010. For more information go to MTC's website, <http://www.mtc.ca.gov/>

Education Unlimited: Check out the Sally Ride Science Camp, East Coast College Tours, the popular UC Berkeley Pre-College Sessions, and many special interest offerings such as Web Designing, Video Production, Public Speaking, Creative Writing, Actors Workshops, and more!! Visit http://educationunlimited.com/pages/all_camps_summary for more details!

CONGRESSIONAL STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE: Looking for an academic and leadership experience that allows you to grow personally and academically? Congressional Student Leadership Conference offers career exploration in medicine, business, law and government, travel abroad to international destinations, and college courses on campus sites for the high school student. Check out their programs at <http://www.cslc2010.org>

Summer Opportunity at the US Military Academy at West Point: The U.S. Military Academy at West Point will host two sessions this summer for current juniors who have an interest in becoming an army officer. The Summer Leaders Seminar provides students the opportunity to gain a better understanding of the academic, physical, military, and leadership development programs available at West Point. Additional information and applications are available at www.admissions.westpoint.edu. Admission is on a rolling basis so students are urged to apply early.

International Summer Exchange Programs: Youth for Understanding (www.yfu-usa.org) has a number of programs available, many of which offer scholarship funding. Deadlines for some of the scholarships for these programs begin in January, so check out their program site for specific details.

ECI – EduCulture International: SUMMER STUDY ABROAD Summer programs in Spain and Costa Rica for Spanish students and in France for French students. Check out the university credit option, host family or dormitory accommodation, intensive small-group language classes, and amazing cultural activities, excursions. Scholarships available! Visit ECI's website: www.educulture.org or call Tracy Cone at 510-845-2230.

Summer Institutes at UCLA - Registration begins Jan. 15, 2010

UCLA offers educational institutes for high school students during the summer. Some offer college credit; others do not. Program timeframes vary and many different subject areas are offered. Some examples include: Art and Design, Architecture, Business and Management, Medicine and Health Sciences, Performing Arts and much more! Registration begins Jan. 15, but program information is available now on their website. Get a jump start and check it out at <http://www.summer.ucla.edu/institutes/GeneralInfo/generalinfo.htm>

California College of the Arts in Oakland: Pre-College; earn 7 units of college credit!! 4 week program in Creative Writing, Animation, Architecture, Graphic Design, Fashion Design, painting-drawing, and MANY other areas. Go to www.cca.edu/precollege for more information and to apply. Priority application deadline is March 19, 2010.

Stanford Summer College is a selective eight week program for students eager to challenge their intellects and participate in a stimulating academic community! Classes begin June 21. Application deadline for residential program is May 2. Applications are available at: <http://summer.stanford.edu/>

National Youth Leadership Forum On Collegiate Success - Comprehensive three- day residential program designed to assist students in building the skills necessary to master the transition from high school to college. www.nylf.org (NYLF also offers forums on Medicine, National Security and Law/Crime Scene Investigation)

Summer Study Programs - Enrichment classes, action- packed camping trips, sports clinics, and a residential stay of either 3 or 5 weeks at CU Boulder, 6.5, 4, 3.5 weeks at U Penn, 4 weeks at U Vermont in Burlington or 3 or 5 week study abroad programs at The Sorbonne in Paris, France. Go to: www.bestsummer.com for more information.

Summer 2010 - UC Berkeley - Academic Talent Development Program (ATDP): UC Berkeley offers a summer academic program with "challenging classes for highly motivated scholars", grades 7-11. The summer session is June 21 to July 30 and many different courses are available. Tuition is $475 for 5-unit courses and $705 for 10-unit courses, plus materials and lab fees. Students must submit an application to be considered; returning students application deadline is March 31, and for new applicants the deadline is March 3!! All catalog information and application forms are available at: <http://atdp.berkeley.edu>. Or stop by the College and Career Center to pick up a flyer.

Summer Course at Oxford Advanced Studies Program: An academic curriculum with a range of subjects taught using the tutorial method of teaching favored by Oxford and Cambridge Universities. Area travel also included. Students will live in a residential hall on the Brasenose College campus at Oxford University in England. Program dates: July 6-30, 2010. For more information go to: www.oasp.ac.uk. Open to students currently in their sophomore, junior and senior years.

3 Days of Fashion - Summer Program at FIDM: Are you intrigued by the creative worlds of Fashion and Business? Are thinking about a career in exciting, fast paced jobs such as: boutique owner, visual merchandiser, graphic or web designer, marketing director, and more? Here's an opportunity to attend 3 days of classes at one of the 4 campuses of the Fashion Institute of Design and Merchandising. Locations include: L.A., SF, San Diego and Orange County. Cost is: $250 for all three days! Go to: www.fidm.edu/summerprogram for more information or to apply.

Summer Studio 2010 at the Art Institute - several west coast locations including SF, LA, San Diego and more: If you are a high school junior or senior and have an interest in the design, media arts, fashion or culinary fields check this out! The Art Institutes Summer studio workshops are your chance to work with industry professionals and get hands-on experience in the inspiring creative world. Most are the 3rd week in June, but start dates vary. Summer Studio workshop cost is $150 (plus travel and accommodations). Go to: <http://www.summerstudio.com/west/> for more information or to apply.

COSMOS - UC Summer School for Math and Science: COSMOS is a four-week residential program for talented and motivated students completing grades 8-12. Students work side-by-side with outstanding university researchers and faculty to explore advanced topics in science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM) using curriculum that is hands-on and lab intensive. COSMOS alumni have exclusive opportunities for internships, college scholarships, mini research grants and special events. $30 application fee; $2,550 tuition fee (includes room and board). Full and partial financial assistance is available for qualified applicants. Dates: UCD/UCI/UCSC: July 5-31; UCSD: July 11 to Aug. 7.

Application period: Feb. 1-March 31. For more information and to apply go to: www.ucop.edu/cosmos.

Perry Outreach Program (POP) -- Summer 2010: Open to female students including current freshmen, sophomores or juniors. Students must be able to attend all Summer Program Activities

(Saturday, July 24, July 31, and August 7) and they are focused on encouraging young women to pursue careers in orthopaedic surgery and biomechanical engineering. We do not expect applicants to know a lot about these particular fields. The core POP program includes a multi-day, full-immersion workshop series, followed by an invitation to shadow women orthopedic surgeons in the operating room. Following the career summer program, participants may choose to receive longer term and one-on-one mentoring from practicing women surgeons or engineers.

Applications are due by April 1, 2010. Go to:

http://perryinitiative.org/outreach/apply_online.html for more information or to apply.

June 20-26, 2010--2010 Young Ambassadors Program - Smithsonian Institution -- This incredible program selects up to 24 outstanding high school seniors with an interest and commitment to the disciplines in the arts, sciences, or humanities pertaining to Latino communities and cultures, for a weeklong all expense paid seminar at the Smithsonian Institution. Visit www.latino.si.edu/education for more information and to apply! The training seminar encourages youth to explore and understand Latino identity and embrace their own cultural heritage.

Following the training seminar, students participate in a four-week interdisciplinary education internship in museums and other cultural institutions in their local communities, including Smithsonian-affiliated organizations. A program stipend will be given at the completion of the 5-week program. Through the program, we empower Latino youth to develop leadership and academic skills. All application materials are due in the Smithsonian Latino Center office no later than 5 pm ET on April 7, 2010.

THINK CHINA - Summer Internship Program - 5 weeks in Shanghai "Think China: brings high school and college students from the U.S. to Shanghai for an internship-focused summer experience. Intern at such companies as Google, Best Buy, Italki.com and more. In addition to the full-time internships, students will have an opportunity to explore a variety of topics including career exploration and life abroad through their individual series of seminars and workshops. At the same time, students will have a chance to sample the fast-paced life of Shanghai while exploring and learning more about life and culture in China. Application deadline is April 11. Must be 16 or older - juniors and seniors preferred. $2000 scholarships are available to early applicants. Check out the website: <http://www.thinkchinagroup.com> for more information or to apply.

UCSB Summer Programs - Research Mentorships: Participate in Hands-On, University level discovery at UCSB this summer. Earn 8 UC credits. Participate in true and original graduate level on-going research. Strengthen your critical thinking skills. Experience college life! Applications are now being accepted for this 6-week program, June 21st to July 30th. Open to 10th to 12th graders. For more details and to apply go to www.summer.ucsb.edu/RMP/rmpcourses.html .

2010 Summer Programs/Internships-----Expired as of date above:

Juniors and Seniors: PAID SUMMER INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY/SUMMER LEADERSHIP

SUMMIT: Bank of America is sponsoring a Student Leaders Program which offers community-minded high school juniors and seniors an opportunity to help change the world! Students have an 8-week paid summer internship at a local non-profit and participate in a student leadership summit in Washington D.C., all the while, learning how nonprofits, government, and business can partner to create a better world for all of us. For more information and an application visit, <http://www.bankofamerica.com/neistudentleaders>. Applications are due Wednesday, February 17th.

InnerSpark-California State Summer School for the Arts - July 10-Aug. 6, 2010. 520 CA teens are selected through a competitive application process. Programs offered include Animation, Film/Video, Creative Writing, Dance, Music, Theater and the Visual Arts. Financial aid available to qualified applicants. CA students: $1485; includes room and board and tuition for the 4-week summer session. Applications are due by Feb. 27, 2010. Go to: www.innerspark.us to learn more and/or apply.

Stanford Youth Medical Science Program (SYMSP) - Summer Program: SYMSP is looking for economically disadvantaged and under-represented sophomore and junior high school students who are academically oriented, mature and inquisitive, interested in science, health and medical careers, and are going to be first in their family to attend a college or university. This is a residential program from June 20 - July 25, 2010. Full scholarships will be offered to 24 qualified high school students to attend. Competition is rigorous...Apply NOW!! Application deadline is March 1, 2010. To apply go to: <http://smysp.stanford.edu> or e-mail youth.science@stanford.edu.

SUMMER SCIENCE INTERNSHIP through the Arthritis Foundation: The Arthritis Foundation Summer Science Internship program is accepting applications for their internship. This internship provides advanced high school Junior or Senior students and college undergraduates with an opportunity to work in the Bay Area's leading Rheumatology Laboratories under the direction of renowned scientists. Go to www.arthritis.org/chapters/northern-california/ to download an informational flyer and application. Deadline is Friday, February 26, 2010.

USAF ACADEMY Summer Seminar: Experience life as a US Air Force Cadet at the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs. Attend amazing classes taught by world class instructors. Dates: June 2-18. Applications are being accepted until Feb. 28, 2010. Cost is $350 plus transportation. For more information or to apply, go to: http://www.academyadmissions.com/#Page/Summer_Seminar

J. Craig Venter Institute 2010 Internship Program: The Internship Program offers motivated (16 year old+) high school, the opportunity to nurture their interest in science by participating in cutting-edge genomic research at the Institute in both Maryland and California. In addition, the Institute also hosts students interested in other areas such as law and IT. For more information, visit: <http://www.jcvi.org/cms/education/internship-program>
Please note that the application deadline is February 16, 2010. If you have questions regarding this opportunity, contact Lisa A. McDonald, MBA, Education Director, lmcdonald@jcvi.org